

Suzanne Gets in the Swim

QUEEN
of tennis, Suzanne
Lenglen (above) is as fashionable as the next one
at the Lido,
near Venice, Italy, where she adopted
the fashionable silk
pajamas, now
the vogue at Lido Beach.

Suzanne
arrives here
in a few weeks
to take part in professional tennis
matches.
(H. M.)

Stork Brings Three to Happy Mother

TRIPLETS were born to Mrs. Dorothy Jaffee at the New York Infirmary. All are healthy. You ought to hear 'em cry! Photo shows Mrs. Jaffee with Adeline, Merman and Arnold. (Photo Graphic.)

13TH GOT HIM. Frank Caruso (no relation to Enrico) has been arrested twelve times and not once convicted. He was arrested again yesterday and held without bail for alleged participation in three New Jersey hold-ups. (Graphic.)

REAL PRIZE. Marjorie Jennings, 3, of Irvington, N. J., must know just what the judges in baby contests like. She won two "pretty baby" contests this summer. Photo above shows her telling the secret of her success to her doll. (Photo Graphic.)

CITY'S JEWRY CELEBRATES ROSH HASHANAH!

L. I. and photo (left) shows groups that proceeded to Williamsburg Bridge. (Right) Photo shows

Gathering at synagogues all over the city yesterday, New York's Jews celebrated their New Year. Photo (above, right) shows crowds at synagogue at Edgemere.